A PERSONAL MESSAGE TO THE CLASS OF 1980

As I write these lines, there is as much snow outside the window as we've had all winter, and for some days now we have been waiting for some sunshine. You can imagine what a pleasure it is to think for a while about your graduation and the very different years which are ahead of you. It is also an opportunity for me to Give Advice - even though you may have heard parts of it before!

First of all, my congratulations to you as a Senior Class for your many accomplishments at The Prairie School. You know, better than anyone else, how much has gone into the diploma which you carry away on Commencement night. It represents far more than the courses you took and the grades you received, your successful Interim projects, you took part in, and the other services and activities in which you lent a hand. Your diploma - alongside other reminders of your Prairie years - carries with it memories of friendship, triumphs, disappointments, times of happiness and periods of self-doubt. I know and care for each of you - perhaps more than you would guess - and I hope that you will cherish these memories in your future. They are all important; they all played a part in making you the persons that you are now. More than you can imagine, they will have a strong influence on you five, ten, and twenty years from now.

And whatever comes, it will not all be easy. Of course, there will be tremendous educational challenges, but there will also be great differences in life style. New choices will come your way, and possibly there will be some pressure on you to look at new philosophies and even new value systems. It so happens that we come from an area where personal integrity and common sense are widely honored, family life is strong, and you have been better prepared than many to remain true to yourselves during the coming years. Please, try not to let that become a voice of the past. I believe very strongly that fineness of character and consistency in values are two of the essential keys to your future inner happiness; I am positive that they are the qualities which will make you especially meaningful to other people. I wish each of you the very best as you leave Prairie, and hope that you will remember us and visit us often. You will always be welcome, and it will be a great pleasure for me and for your faculty.

BOB LAMBERTON

BARB REGIMBAL

I wonder what tomorrow has in mind for me,
Or am I even in it's mind at all,
Perhaps I''ll get a chance to look ahead and see,
As soon as I find myself a crystal ball.
- Styx

So many people have come and gone,
Their faces fade as the years go by,
Yet I still recall as I wander on,
As clear as the sun in the summer's sky.

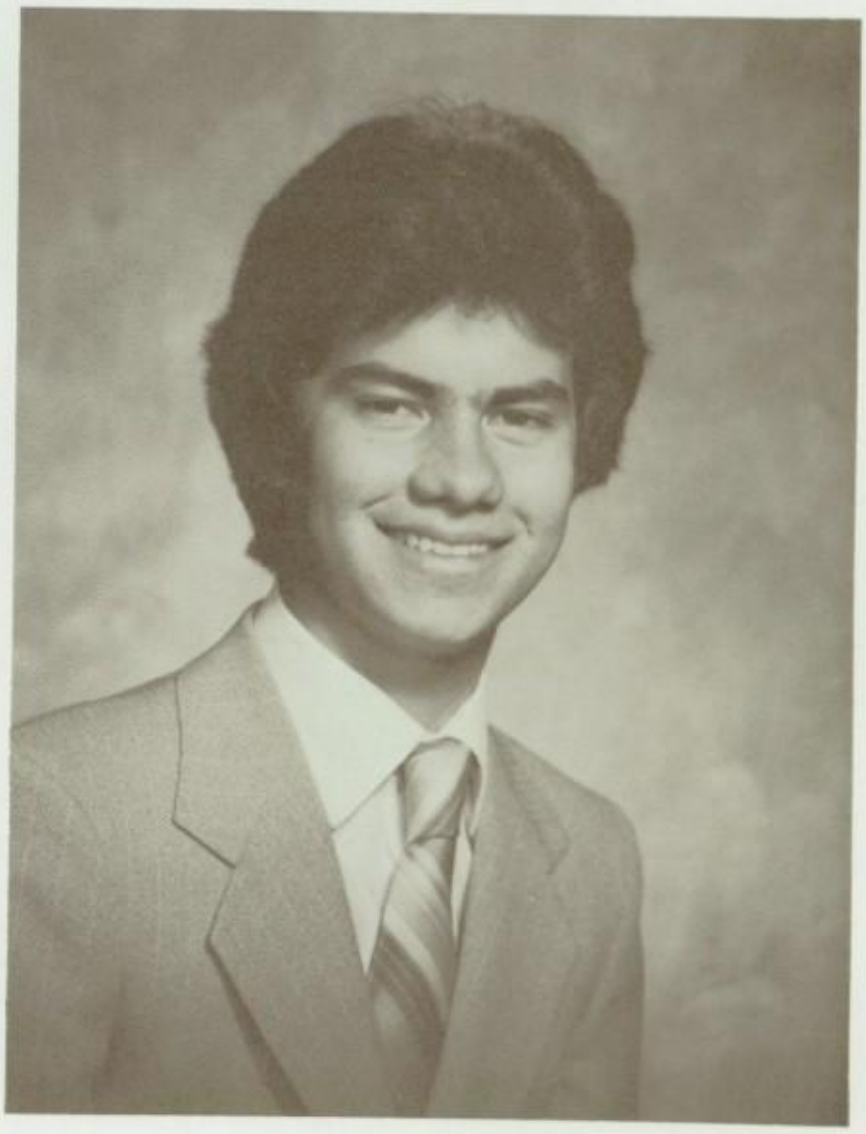
Boston

CAROL WILSON

Do you know where you're going to
Do you like the things that life is showin' you
Where are you going to, Do you know
Do you get what you're hoping for
When you look behind you there's no open door
What are you hoping for. Do you know

Theme from Mahogany, Diana Ross

TIMOTHY LEE



PAM SHORT

Take your time . . . Don't live too fast.
Troubles will come and they will pass.
Don't worry . . . You'll find yourself,
Follow your heart and nothing else.
And you can do this if you try
All I want for you is to be satisfied.
Lynyrd Skynyrd

It's been such a long time
I think I should be going
Time doesn't wait for me
It keeps on rolling
It's a long road that I gotta keep in time with
I keep on chasin' that dream
though I may never find it.

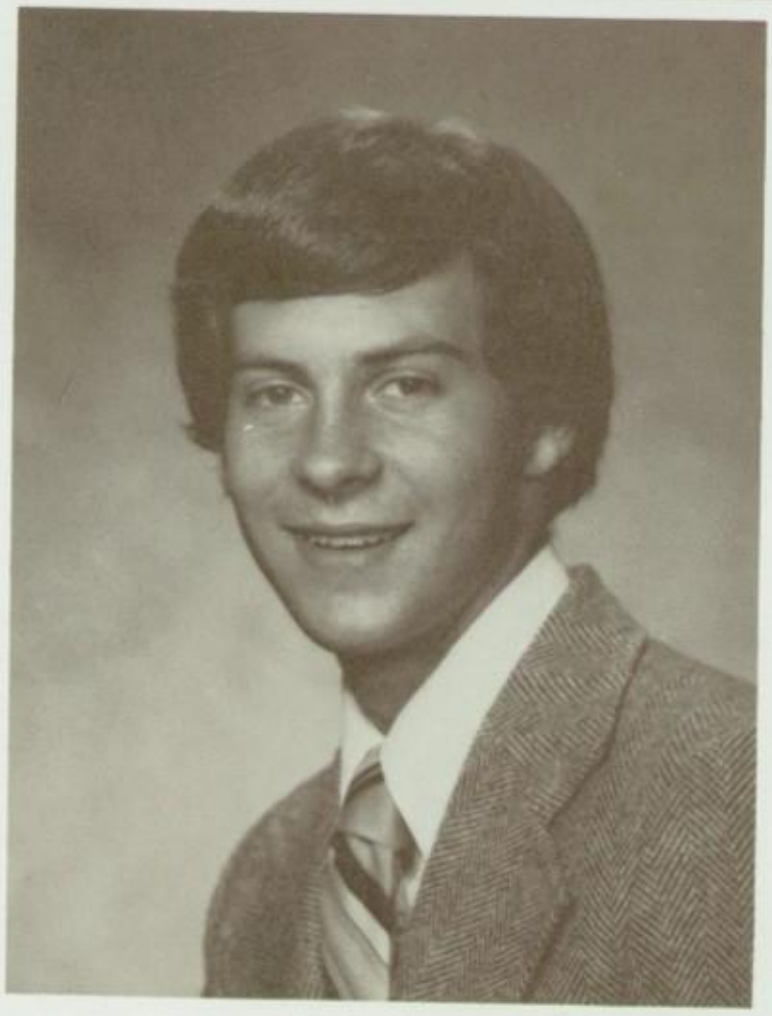
MICHAEL DEGENHART



Once I rose above the noise
and confusion
Just to get a glimpse beyond
the illusion
I was soaring ever higher,
but I flew too high Though my eyes could see I still was a blind man
Though my mind could think I still was a mad man
I hear the voices when I'm dreamin', I can hear them say

Carry on my wayward son,
For there'll be peace when
you are done
Lay your weary head to rest
Now don't you cry no more

--- Kansas

MIKE QUICKER

Regrets, I've had a few,
but then again, too few to mention.
I did what I had to do,
and saw it thru without exemtion
I planned each chartered course,
each careful step along the byway,
And more, much more than this,
I did it My Way
Yes, There were times, I'm sure you knew,
when I bit off more than I could chew,
But thru it all, when there was doubt,
I ate it up, and spit it out.
I faced it all, and I stood tall,
and I did it My Way.
I've loved, I've laughed and cried,
I've had my fill, my share of losing,
And now, as tears subside,
I find it all so amusing.
To think, I killed a cat,
and may I say "not in a gay way."
Oh no, oh no, not me,
I did it My Way.
For what is a man, what has he got,
if not himself, than he has not
to say the things he truly feels,
And not the words of one who kneels.
The record shows I took the blows,
and did it My Way!

The Making of Friends

Life is sweet just because of the friends we have made
And the things which in common we share;
We want to live on, not just for ourselves,
But because of the people who care;
It's giving and doing for somebody else . . .
On that all life's splendor depends,
And the joy of this world when you've summed
it all up,
Is found in the making of friends.

ANOTHER YEAR HAS PASSED ME BY
STILL I LOOK AT MYSELF AND CRY
WHAT KIND OF A MAN HAVE I BECOME?
ALL OF THE YEARS I'VE SPENT IN SEARCH OF MYSELF
AND I'M STILL IN THE DARK
'CAUSE I CAN'T SEEM TO FIND THE LIGHT ALONE

SOMETIMES I FEEL LIKE A MAN IN THE WILDERNESS
I'M A LONELY SOLDIER OFF TO WAR
SENT AWAY TO DIE-NEVER QUITE KNOWING WHY
SOMETIMES IT MAKES NO SENSE AT ALL

TEN THOUSAND PEOPLE LOOK MY WAY
BUT THEY CAN'T SEE THE WAY THAT I FEEL
NOBODY EVEN CARES TO TRY
I SPENT MY LIFE AND SELL MY SOUL ON THE ROAD
AND I'M STILL IN THE DARK
'CAUSE I CAN'T SEEM TO FIND THE LIGHT ALONE

SOMETIMES I FEEL LIKE A MAN IN THE WILDERNESS
I'M A LONELY SOLDIER LOST AT SEA
DRIFTING WITH THE TIDE
NEVER QUITE KNOWING WHY
